

THURSDAY, MAY 12, 2022 - DAY 1 - ECONOMIC SUSTAINABILITY

1st - Improving the efficiency and effectiveness of corporate actions: ideas, models and measures of efficiency - Time: 2:30 pm to 4:00 pm

Interventions

Improving the efficiency and effectiveness of corporate actions - Introduction to the works by Prof. Damiano Frosi - Director of the Contract Logistics Observatory "Gino Marchet" of the Politecnico di Milano

Business sustainability: Cost control through technology and specific calculation models by GEOTAB Italy and DRIVEvolve Srl

Knowledge, a passport to change: models of approach, culture and training. The Toyota model, by Eng. Francesco Pistorello - Logistics Solution Director Toyota Handling Solution and Eng. Emanuele Cesari - Manager Toyota Logistic Solutions Academy

*** _ ***

FRIDAY, MAY 13, 2022 - DAY 2 - ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY

1st Workshop - End of the oil economy, new energy sources: paths of change - Time : from 10.00 am to 11.30 am

Interventions

The end of the oil economy and new energy sources: from the current scenario to the energy transition. What will be the price of change. Introduction to the works by Prof. Massimo Nicolazzi of the University of Turin

Decarbonising commercial transportation: instructions for use. The IRU Green Compact: a roadmap towards neutrality, by IRU - International Road Transport Union of Geneva and FIAP

How to deal with environmental change: the circular economy and sustainable development - The VIVACE experience, by Eng. Augusto Bianchini of the University of Bologna

The future of industrial vehicles: the evolution of the primary tool in the transport of goods, by Dr. Paolo Starace - President of UNRAE Industrial Vehicles Section

2nd Workshop - Towards climate neutrality - Time : from 11.45 am to 1:00 pm

Interventions

Toward climate neutrality: It is necessary to increase the culture and the habit of companies to this about the footprint as an element of importance in the development of their business activities " Introduction to the work by Prof. Massimo Nicolazzi of the University of Turin

The carbon footprint: from the Greenhouse Gases Protocol to the collection of useful data for the calculation of emissions, by Eng. Andrea Fossa - Scientific Director of the Contract Logistics Observatory

ESG - Enviroment, Social & Governance: central factors in measuring the sustainability of an investment, by FIAP and Partners

3rd Workshop - What the clients ask and will they ask in the future to the transport and the logistics sector

- Time : from 2:30 pm to 3.45 pm

Interventions

How is the industry facing the massive change underway, between risks and opportunities - Introduction by Alessandro Peron, Secretary General of FIAP

Evolving models: the future of transportation and logistics. How most other industries are facing a change of epic proportions, and like all changes, this involves both risks and opportunities, by Prof. Roberto Cerchione Researcher and Professor of Management Engineering at the Parthenope University of Naples

Best Practices - Best Practices Testimonials of important Client Representatives

4th Workshop - Transport Compliance Rating: the first international rating protocol specific for transport and logistics - Time: from 4:00 pm to 5:30 pm

Interventions

TCR - Transport Compliance Rating: Ethics and transparency, first of all, by the Transport Compliance Rating Observatory, coordinated by the Chairman of the Observatory Dr. Massimo Marciani - Visit www.tcr-global.org

SATURDAY, MAY 14, 2022 - DAY 3 - SOCIAL SUSTAINABILITY

1st Workshop - #RispettiAMOiltrasporto - Time : from 10:00 am to 11:30 am

Interventions

#RispettiAMOiltrasporto: the social component of Sustainability. Roundtable by FIAP with the participation of client representatives, Workers' Trade Unions and Labour experts

2nd Workshop - Safe Driving and Driver Wellness in T&L - Time: 2:30 pm to 3:45 pm

Interventions

Safe Driving Project: results of the study on "sleep spells", by Garmin B2B Sales Manager, Carlo Macaluso

"Welfare" as a driver of sustainability and development in the most advanced sectors of logistics and transport, by Tiziana Pregliasco Founder of PIXIS Srl

Each meeting will include, at the end of the speeches, a questions and answers session, by FIAP and the speakers and guests present. Soon on www.fiapautotrasporti.it it will be possible to register for individual events, which will be governed by specific safety and health regulations. Please note that the program may be further integrated or modified as a result of the participation of other or additional speakers and guests. Information on updates will be announced through special notifications that will be published on the Federation website - www.fiapautotrasporti.it